

Fair Meadow Bakes located in Mt. Pleasant, NC is owned and operated by Pat and Jay Gaddis. They specialize in local ingredient pizza and breads with your health (and theirs) in mind. They bake with 100% certified organic flours and sprouted grain flour exclusively in addition to sea salt, spring water and natural leavens in all of their breads, unless noted otherwise. Friday night pizza was a family tradition for the Gaddis family and now those pizza events are open to the public. Pizzas are made with the freshest, local ingredients and baked in their wood fired brick oven. They also offer private pizza events for birthday parties, church youth groups, girls night out, wedding rehearsals, etc. in their outdoor pavilion which seats 35 comfortably. Make sure to visit Fair Meadow Bakes for a pizza night or at the Stanly County Farmers' Market and the Stanly Commons Farmers' Market.
