

Hope Farms

Hope Farms is a small farm utilizing farming methods used by their great-grandparents located in Candor, NC in Montgomery County. It's owned and operated by Sheila & Ed Menendez and their son, Eddie. Sheila has a variety of fresh produce available including asparagus, beans, egg plant, peppers, greens and more. She also sells fresh, free-range chicken eggs. You might also find her hand-made rugs and pet beds at the farmers' markets as well. Her farm products are grown using good, sustainable practices to bring you the freshest products grown by her family. You can find Hope Farms products at the Stanly County Farmers' Market, Stanly Commons Farmers' Market and the Montgomery County Farmers' Market.
